Welcome

3Fox International is a B2B customer publishing and events company. We work exclusively in the field of regeneration, promoting large-scale development schemes across the UK, Ireland and the Channel Islands. At this site, you can find out more about us, our work and our clients.

If you would like your regeneration programme, or your work on a development, promoted to an audience of planning authorities, developers, investors and end-users, please don't hesitate to get in touch here.

If you're looking for business in regeneration, find out how to raise your company's profile here.
